Mario Abruscato, husband of Wheeling Village President
Judy Abruscato, died Sunday,
Feb. 10 at the age of 90.

Mr. Abruscato suffered several strokes in the past two years and was recently placed in hospice care.

The Abruscato's were married for over 50 years and have two children and two grandchildren.

They originally moved to Wheeling because of Mario
Abruscato's job with HA Morrison in Wilmette where he worked as an arborist. He was with the company for 45 years.

The downturn in his health was sudden.

"Everybody thought he was 60 or 65, but he was 90," said
Judy Abruscato.

Mario's wake was held Tuesday at Kolsaak Funeral Home in Wheeling. His funeral took place Wednesday, Feb. 12 at St. Joseph the Worker Church in Wheeling.

Abruscato's husband remembered as 'vibrant'

2.13.13
BY DEBORAH DONOVAN

Mario Abruscato, husband of Wheeling Village President Judy Abruscato, is being remembered Tuesday as a man who liked to tell a joke and earned the affection of most everyone he met.

A celebration Mass for Abruscato, who died Sunday at the age of 90, will start at 10 a.m. Wednesday, Feb. 13, at St. Joseph the Worker in Wheeling.

Mario Abruscato supported his wife's careers and campaigns door to door with her.

"He'd be on one side of the street and I'd be on the other, and he'd say to people, 'That's my wife across the street — turn around, these people want to see you.'"

He worked 45 years as an arborist for a North Shore company, and Judy Abruscato credits the way he shared his dedication to trees with their son for inspiring Tony Abruscato's career as president of the Chicago Flower & Garden Show.

"The joke was, when Mario came home from work and the kids said 'How was your day, Dad?' He would say 'Oh, we had to buy a lot of Kleenex for the weeping willow.'"

Nick Helmer, now mayor of neighboring Prospect Heights, said Mario Abruscato collected baseball caps, and even people he didn't know would stop on the street and give him caps.

"The day I met him, I said, 'That's an interesting cap you're wearing,' and Judy leaned over and said, 'It's one of 210.'"

Helmer said Mario Abruscato was interested in life and very intelligent.

"Mario was a vibrant guy always ready to tell a joke and have fun," he said.

More than half a century ago when Mario Abruscato's niece told her friend Judy Heidersbach to drop into a family gathering and check out her unmarried uncle, the young woman thought the man who seemed interested in her was already married because all the young children were gathered around "Uncle

OF WHEELING

Mario."

The Abruscatos were married more than 52 years and lived in Wheeling 45 years. Their two children are Tony, who lives in Chicago, and Valerie Gross, a Wheeling resident.

"Everyone should have had a chance to meet my Mario," said Judy Abruscato.

Don Allison
Scout Leader 10.13.66

Meet Don Allison, a fellow-citizen of Wheeling. Don's home at 157 Isa Drive is not too much better or worse than homes of most Wheeling folks. He claims just to be an ordinary man, and most of us in meeting him would probably say--"that fellow would probably make a pretty good neighbor"--and leave it at that.

But Don has a hobby--he's had it for twelve years. It is helping kids to better citizenship through the Scouting program. Don Allison is Scoutmaster of troop 212. Twelve years ago he got the Scouting "bug".

Two years ago he became head-man of Troop 212. Every month since then, the troop has had at least one outdoor camping or hiking experience. This includes the winter months, when the gang has camped in weather as cold as ten below zero. Last year the troop assisted with an interesting survival program put on for cadets from the Glenview Air training base. Most recently they were highly commended by citizens of Wheeling for assistance rendered after the tornado.

Woman remembered as 'Ma'

BY FRED WOODHAMS

Daily Herald Staff Writer

A former Wheeling High School and police employee, Marguerite Allison, known for her kindness and devotion to her family, died Tuesday.

"Her life just revolved around her children, her grandchildren and her great-grandchild, and her many, many friends," said her son-in-law, Chuck Slater.

Allison, 72, worked for the Wheeling Police Department as a records clerk, during which time she became a mother figure for some of the department's young officers. She filled a similar role when she served as a security guard at Wheeling High School after her retirement from the force in 1986. Wheeling students came to know Allison as "Ma" and enjoyed hearing tales from her time working for the police department, said Marilyn Kent, who also worked as a high school security guard.

Marguerite Allison

guard.

"The kids used to like to hear her stories about stuff that happened in the police department," she said.

Wheeling Deputy Police Chief Michael Hermes called Allison one of the best records clerks the department ever had.

"Even after she left the department, she and her husband still kept in contact when she worked at the high school," he said.

Police officers would stop by her house to see how she was doing, Hermes said.

Allison, whose husband, Don, died in April, is survived by her children, Donald J. and Debbie Allison, and Lynn and Chuck Slater; and grandchildren Eric, James, and Kelly Allison, Brandi Voigt, and Matthew and Kenneth Slater. Her great-grandchild is Tyler Jeffrey Voigt.

MICHAEL PATRICK AINLAY(1951 - 2016)

Michael Patrick Ainlay passed peacefully in his sleep on November 27, 2016. Born in Bangor, Maine in 1951, Michael grew up in Wheeling, Illinois and lived in Palatine and Prospect Heights for most of his life. Always ahead of his time, Michael lived his life doing the right thing before it was the 'in' thing. He was a major proponent of organic food, vegetarianism, recycling and chemical free health products long before most had ever given those things a second thought. Michael went that extra mile for his beliefs - and for the friends and family in his life. He was a shoulder to cry on for those in need, an incredible listener and as empathetic as they come. A solitary, gentle, poetic soul, he also had a sharp wit, competitive spirit and a green thumb, always very proud of the symbiotic relationship he had with his many plants. Though he lived a quiet life, Mike crisscrossed the United States several times - including a three-week road trip adventure with his daughter - and brought the whole world into his family's home through his magnificent collection of stamps from around the globe. He was a knowledgeable collector, a pop culture enthusiast, a sometimes guitar player and a lifelong lover of dogs, chocolate and great television shows. In his professional life, he spent many years as a driver running routes throughout the suburbs and Chicago, first through newspaper circulation, then vending machine products, until moving into management and eventually finding a home for several years as Department Manager at Home Depot. His proudest accomplishment was his daughter, Jessica Ainlay. She brought the greatest joy to his life. Michael is survived by his daughter Jessica, his sisters April (Bob) Huffstutler and Holly Kelps, his brother John Ainlay, his step brothers and sisters Carey and Cathy Zimmerman and Allen, Jim, John, and Terri Hagedorn and his nieces, Kristine (Dave) Ensor, Holly Kim Huffstutler, and Jessica Huffstutler. If you would like to honor Michael, he would want you to recycle all your plastic and newspapers, lay off all that meat you've been eating, dig for collectibles at garage sales, and in the words of his favorite singer, Gin Wigmore, "live like you never have, take in all you can, before the wind decides..."

Otto Andersen Started Selling John Deere Line Because He "Didn't Want It For Competition!"

WHEELING DEALER HOPES TO SELL 200 OR MORE TRACTORS A YEAR

TEN YEARS ago on the outskirts of Wheeling, Illinois, about 20 miles northwest of Chicago, there lived a stock dealer who had an enviable reputation as a "darned good horse-trader."

Otto Andersen knew horses, he knew people, and he knew his business. However, he also was shrewd enough to see that, one by one, his best customers were yielding to the power of that modern magnet—the tractor. Yessir! Horses just weren't in it any more!

"I've made up my mind," said Otto Andersen to his wife one morning as she was at her many household tasks, "farming is undergoing a transformation. What's more, we might just as well progress right along with it. What do you say?"

"If you mean you want to go into the farm machinery business, I'm heartily in favor of it," she replied, adding, "I'm sure I could tell you in just one guess what line you would prefer to sell."

Mr. Andersen smiled knowingly. Together they had observed the development of the John Deere tractor from the old Model "D" to the numerous "A's" and "B's" which were appearing in increasing numbers.

Because he was thoroughly sold on the performance of John Deere equipment and felt that it would be like trying to swim upstream to sell in competition with John Deere, Otto Andersen arranged to obtain a John Deere contract. In a short time, he and Mrs. Andersen were selling the John Deere line right from their house and barn.

That was in 1936. Today Otto Andersen's place is on the same ground, but now there are nine buildings, including a fully modern 9-room house. There are 18 people in the organization. E. J. Keating, retired John Deere traveler, who is now connected with Mr. Andersen's business, gave his loyal support to Mr. and Mrs. Andersen in building this business from a standing start up to the enviable place it holds today. The growth of the firm is marked with such outstanding achievements as this: In 1941 they sold 123 new John Deere tractors, 126 new cultivators and 95 new plows. Last year 276 tractors were overhauled, 130 of them painted so they looked like new.

The main store building houses the parts department, three offices, a waiting room and two rest rooms. The spacious parking area, reached by a double driveway, is paved with black top and has accommodated as many as 200 cars at one time.

Their business organization is especially commendable. Mrs. Andersen helps in the office along with her busy role as home manager. "Meals at our house are served from any time between 6 o'clock in the morning until 10 at night," she will tell you good-naturedly. The Andersens have two daughters: Marion, 21, and Lois, 19. They also have reared and educated Ruby Cole and Wesley Joseph Conrad, both of whom had been left without homes.

All of their employees are hard workers, dependable and loyal. "Everyone has a job to do and he does it," says Mr. Andersen. "Often the spring season has meant lots of overtime, but the men are always willing to put in extra hours."

As soon as more equipment is available, Mr. Andersen hopes to sell at least 200 or more John Deere tractors a year. "Right now," he says, "I'm getting my organization in shape to do a real selling job in this trade area."

Mrs. Lars Andersen, nee Minnie Hoffmann, was born in Fox River, Wisconsin, April 17, 1899. About 20 years ago she came to Wheeling and was employed at the Union Hotel for fourteen years, working under three successive proprietors including the present proprietor. In Sept., 1928, she was married to Mr. Lars Andersen. Upon their marriage they made their home in Crystal Lake, Ill., and a little later moved to a farm nearby. One child was born into the family, a daughter, Violet. About a month ago the child fell victim to a light case of scarlet fever. The mother cared for her and she recovered rapidly, and the family eagerly looked for the period of quarantine to lift, to be reunited. On Wednesday night, July 31, the mother fell ill with a violent case of the disease and despite all doctor and nurse could do, she passed away just four days later, Aug. 4, at the age of 36 years and several months.

Because of the nature of the disease funeral services were held only at the burial place in Ridgewood cemetery on Tuesday afternoon and were conducted by the Rev. E. L. Shaw. Chief among those to grieve her unexpected going, are her husband, Mr. Lars Andersen, her daughter, Violet, her aged mother, Mrs. H. Hoffmann, two sisters, a brother, 4 step sons and a step-daughter.

God looked around His garden and He found an empty place. He then looked down upon this earth, and saw your tired face. He put His arms around you and lifted you to rest. God's garden must be beautiful, He always takes the best. He knew that you were suffering. He knew you were in pain. He knew that you would never get well on earth again. He saw that the road was getting rough and the hills are hard to climb, so He closed your weary eyelids, and whispered "Peace be thine." It broke our hearts to lose you, but you didn't go alone; for part of us went with you, the day God called you home.

Roberta "Bobby" Applegate ~ 1938-2006

Teaching prowess led to new career with dogs

BY EILEEN O. DADAY

Daily Herald Correspondent

Back in 1985, Roberta "Bobby" Applegate of Arlington Heights was profiled in the Daily Herald as one of the first in the area to bring her therapy dog to nursing home patients.

She and her German wire-haired pointer, Blitz, started with patients in the Alzheimer's unit at Manor Care in Arlington Heights, and they became cherished visitors for years, family members say.

"It was amazing the responses she got from people," said her daughter, Karen Nowicki of Palatine. "People who couldn't remember anything or who hadn't talked before suddenly would start talking when they petted the dog."

Mrs. Applegate's love of animals and ability to work with people are traits being remembered about her today. She died Wednesday at the age of 68.

Family members credit much of Mrs. Applegate's accomplishments to her training as a teacher. After she and her husband, Jim, married in 1961, she took her first job teaching second grade at Kimball Hill School in Rolling Meadows.

She taught there for a few years before turning to substitute teaching in Wheeling Township Elementary District 21, while she raised her daughter, Karen, and son, Steve, now

COURTESY OF JIM APPLLEGATE

Roberta "Bobby" Applegate's love of dogs was legendary, and she and her husband, Jim, had a keen interest in training hunting dogs.

of Arlington Heights.

Her experience in teaching carried over into another passion: training dogs. Nearly 35 years ago, Mrs. Applegate and her husband joined the fledgling North America Versatile Hunting Dog Association, out of their interest in training hunting dogs.

The organization relies on hunting tests rather than field trials, and dogs are judged against their breed standard, and not against one another, Jim Applegate said.

Consequently, members work together with the common goal of promoting the versatility of hunting dogs.

Mrs. Applegate became so involved with the organization she became its registrar, keeping records of the genealogy of members' dogs, and she also became involved in the development of its magazine, Versatile Hunting Dog.

She helped it grow from a traditional newsletter to a 28-page, full-color, glossy magazine that she helped edit and promote.

"It was an amazing accomplishment," Jim Applegate said, "but that was what she was."

A memorial service for Mrs. Applegate will take place at 1 p.m. Saturday, at Immanuel Lutheran Church, 200 N. Plum Grove Road, Palatine.

JACOB ARNOLD

Jacob Arnold was born Dec. 17, 1855, and passed away on March 15, 1932; having passed the three-quarter century milestone — 76 years.

The deceased has spent this entire life in this community. In his early youth he was converted and joined the United Evangelical church.

His concern for and interest in his own spiritual nurture and development is revealed in the fact that immediately after his marriage a family altar was established and maintained until his demise.

While not enjoying the best of health for some years he was able to be about until about three weeks ago when he became ill, to which illness he finally succumbed.

Surviving are his deeply bereaved wife, Carrie; two daughters, Mrs. Flora Jarco, and Mrs. Clinton Fritsch; one granddaughter, Helen Fritsch; a host of relatives and friends; sisters and brothers: Mrs. Amelia Wendling Hasel, S. Dakota; Miss Lena Arnold, Oak Park, Ill.; Frank Arnold, Fort Brages, California; Mrs. Will Fassbender, Chicago; Mrs. Mary Ott, Wilmette; Mrs. Lillie Arnold, Wilmette.

Mr. Arnold has been in the hardware business with Will Fassbender, a brother-in-law, for thirty-five years. They dissolved partnership about fifteen years ago, and Mr. Fassbender has continued the business.

Longtime Dist. 214, village servant dies

BY ERIN HOLMES

Daily Herald Staff Writer

For so many beginnings, Arthur E. Aronson was there.

He helped found a church in the 1950s, sat for six years that decade on the Wheeling Township Elementary District 21 school board during a time of growth, and helped organize Prospect High School's first booster club.

In the 1960s, he served on the first Wheeling park board and was elected to the Northwest Suburban High School District 214 board — where he would play a role in the foundations of nearly every school.

"He was such a good-hearted and sincere man ... and served the communities well," said Stephen Berry, a retired District 214 superintendent. "I think the people who live here now owe a debt of gratitude to Art Aronson for his hard work."

Aronson died Monday after years of community contributions. He was 90 years old.

A man who rarely said no, he gave of himself more than most ever would, his son, Wayne, said Tuesday. And, anchored by a love of family and God, he never considered it a chore.

"I think he saw the future coming and he was able to contribute in a way that helped build and protect an area that was growing at the time," said Wayne Aronson, who recalled passing out fliers for his dad's election campaigns. "He had a lot of wonderful ideas, and he was always a people person."

Arthur E. Aronson

A Chicago native and industrial engineer, Aronson moved his family to Wheeling in 1950.

He got involved with the community within years, and sometimes would be gone four nights a week with wife Ruth's blessings: coaching Little League or leading Cub Scouts; serving on engineering societies; working with PTAs or volunteering with the Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd — a church he had helped get started in the gymnasium of a grade school.

He was "sincerely interested in young people and education," said Jack Martin, a former Prospect principal who laughingly recalled Aronson's sense of humor and love for sweets to accompany coffee at board meetings. "He contributed a lot to this district."

Aronson is survived by son Wayne and daughters Georgine (Bob) Steinmiller and Carlene (the Rev. Thomas) Otis; four grandchildren and two brothers. He was preceded in death by his wife, Ruth, son Ward, and one brother.

Visitation will be from 4 to 9 p.m. today at Kolssak Funeral Home, 189 S. Milwaukee Ave. in Wheeling. A funeral service is set for 10:30 a.m. Thursday at Lutheran Church of the Good Shepherd, 1111 Elmhurst Road in Prospect Heights. Memorials can be made to the church.

MOM'S JOURNEY

*Don't think of her as gone away;
her journey's just begun.
Life holds so many facets;
this earth is only one.
Just think of Mom as resting from the sorrow and her tears
in a place of warmth and comfort, where there are no days and years.
Think how Mom must be wishing that we could know today
how nothing but our sadness can really pass away.
And think of Mom as living,
in the hearts of those she touched;
for nothing loved is ever lost,
and Mom was loved so much.*

Celebration of Life

Doris Elizabeth Ashe

1924-2011

Doris was once in an arena with 5,000 people watching a comedian, when a patron from her bar was able to pick her out of the crowd from her one of a kind laugh, contagious and exuberant. Doris Elizabeth Ashe was a person full of life, brought a smile to all that heard her laugh and lived life to its fullest. Not only the devoted wife of Wayne Juan Ashe for 28 years before his premature death; she was mother to Nancy, Mary Pamela, Carolyn, Vivian, and Wayne; mother-in-law to Richard, Jim, Mark, and the late Robert. She was grandmother to 17 and great grandmother to 16. She was a sister, aunt, and friend to many. Doris lived a full and adventurous life. She grew up on a farm in Kalkaska, Michigan hunting and driving a tractor at an early age, but her true life's adventure began when she joined the navy and was stationed in Hawaii, shortly after Pearl Harbor. She joined with 2 goals in mind. She wanted to save enough money to build a windmill to bring electricity to the family farm in Michigan and to buy a headstone for her little sister Mary that had died at just 9 days old. By the time she returned to Michigan, her family farm already had electricity and she was able to buy the headstone for her little sister. Grandma Ashe always believed in following through on her goals.

Doris went on a date with a movie star while stationed in Hawaii. Robert Stack, of the series Untouchable, thought she was a blond beauty, Doris thought he was arrogant. She soon met the love of her life Wayne Juan Ashe, a sweet talking man from Tennessee. During the first 16 years of their lives together, they were stationed all over the country. While Grandpa was out at sea, Grandma took a bus home to Michigan in preparation for the birth of her first child Nancy. Later, they were stationed in Norfolk, Virginia when Mary Pamela was born. She was just 3 days old when they made the trip down to Key West, where they were stationed for the next 4 years. They moved around from base to base before Carolyn was born at the Great Lakes Hospital when grandpa was stationed at the Glenview Naval Air Station. Grandpa was working part time at Grenel's Tavern in Mt. Prospect when he met Ray Schmidt. Through Ray they met his son Rudy and his wife Lola. This was the beginning of a lifelong friendship for Doris and Wayne. Doris and Lola were 2 of a kind always worried about their children while keeping their husbands in check. Soon, Grandpa would be sent back to Norfolk, Virginia for re-assignment where Vivian would be born. Grandpa would later retire from the Navy and they would return to Mt. Prospect, IL where Doris' youngest and only son Wayne Juan Ashe II was born. Wayne ran the Redwood Inn in Mt. Prospect for a number of years before starting Doris' Treetop Inn in Wheeling. When Wayne died, Doris became an instant bar owner taking over all the duties her husband had once handled. As most of you know this made Doris a very strong woman. She still had 2 young children at home and running a tavern full time, no easy task for anyone.

Even with the new found responsibility and workload, Doris was always looking out for her children. When Pamela and her 2 young daughters returned to the Chicago area, she made sure she had a job to support her kids. After Robert's accident, she made sure the family kept a roof over their heads and food on our plates while Carol tended to Bob. Doris was always there for anyone who needed help, especially her family who she always put before herself.

Along with her compassionate nature, Doris was no stranger to adventure. Some would even say she had a bit of a wild side. At the age of 52, she thought it would be a good idea to take a stab at water skiing while vacationing in Chetek, WI. Needless to say, her walk was a little off for a few weeks after her bold attempt. She traveled across the country in her motor home all by herself, always checking in on relatives along the way. She wintered in Hawaii, Acapulco, and Florida eventually settling in a condo in Holmes Beach Florida where her family could visit. At 63, she slept with the polar bears on the tundra of Canada. At 65, she took a bush plane to the remote outback of Alaska for a camping trip. She may have been a widow, but she didn't let that hold her back. Here was a woman that lived her life to the fullest.

Although she spent these last few years in assisted living, Doris lived a full life. She married the love of her life, had 5 kids, 17 grandkids, and 16 great grandchildren. She joined the Navy and traveled the country, Alaska, Hawaii, Canada, and Mexico. Let us remember her for who she was the bold and caring adventurer with the contagious laugh. Doris Ashe left this Earth surrounded by family, the same family she took care of and looked over her entire life. She may no longer be here in body, but her spirit and values are instilled upon all of those she has touched.

The well known and well liked

Charles H. Balling

You've gathered here to say farewell
Your loved one passed away.
The time had come, his work was done;
He could no longer stay.
The time will come for all, when we Must leave our friends behind.
But not for long, we'll meet again
Where he goes now to find
The peace of God. So do not weep,
He lives eternally.
The great, wise Lord who loves us all
Now guides his destiny.

The Lord is my shepherd! I shall not want.
He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
he leadeth me beside the still waters.
He restoreth my soul; he leadeth me in the path of righteousness for his name's sake.
Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death I will fear no evil for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff
they comfort me.
Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil. My cup runneth over.
Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
all the days of my life; and I will dwell

PREFACE

A Slice of Life from the Good Old Days is the product of 3½ years of labor. During this time David Hammer has been digging through American history's richest archive: its old newspapers. With great care and attention to detail, he has assembled a set of "journals" describing everyday life in the northwest suburbs of Chicago at the turn of the century.

On these pages you'll find tramps, prowlers and con artists. You'll hear war stories, tall tales and grand orations. You'll meet peddlers, horse thieves and saloon smashers. But most of all, you'll observe a year in the lives of thousands of people who walked this very same ground many years ago.

The entire volume is compiled from the fifty issues of the Cook County Herald and the Enterprise-Register published in 1901. The Herald was described as "the largest, best and cheapest newspaper in the State." Locked within its pages is a mention of nearly everything that moved at that time. This book is the key to the vault.

American history lies buried in its newspapers. Our forebears were an important part of that history. They made many sacrifices for us. Though their voices are stilled, their legacy lives on. Now Mr. Hammer has given us the opportunity to share with our ancestors their year in the sun.

THE COOK COUNTY HERALD AND THE ENTERPRISE=REGISTER

The news items in this book were typed almost verbatim from microfilm of the Cook County Herald and the Enterprise=Register newspapers. The microfilm can be viewed at the Arlington Heights Memorial Library and the Palatine Public Library. This book is based upon the fifty issues of each paper that appeared from January 5, 1901 to December 21, 1901. They are the earliest available on microfilm.

The Cook County Herald was owned by H. C. Paddock. Mr. Paddock published the paper every Saturday in Arlington Heights. His son, Stuart R. Paddock, was editor of the companion paper, the Enterprise=Register, published in Palatine. The Enterprise=Register was an amalgam of two papers that Paddock had purchased earlier: the Palatine Enterprise and the Du Page County Register.

Each week H. C. Paddock made a circuit with his horse and buggy through his territory. This included northwestern Cook, southern Lake and northern Du Page Counties. Along the way he sold subscriptions and gathered news from correspondents such as Mrs. J. E. Woodworth of Wheeling. Each little community had his own news column. There were columns written for places such as Buck Town, Deikeville and Rodenburg.

The paper was half English and half German. It included syndicated material called "boilerplate", which was printed by hundreds of small newspapers like the Herald. "Boilerplate" contained light features, photographs, serialized fiction and advertising for patent medicines. The rest of the paper was devoted to hometown ads, editorials and local and out-of-town news. Very little news was printed about Chicago.

Missing from the paper were large headlines, by-lines, sports news, advice columns, horoscopes, lottery information, women's news or advertising flyers. All of these were to come later. But the paper did include familiar material such as obituaries, letters to the editor, legal notices and market prices. Birth announcements, unfortunately, did not mention babies' first names.

The two papers faced competition from a dozen other newspapers. Some of them had the habit of "borrowing" from the Herald and Register. The publishers also had to contend with delinquent subscribers and those who wished to turn the papers into "yellow sheets." Nevertheless, the Paddocks worked hard and their business grew.

The Cook County Herald and the Enterprise=Register performed a valuable service to the community. For thousands of subscribers they were "windows to the world." We are fortunate that the newspapers have been preserved for posterity. Now, we too can look through those "windows" and see real people on the job, on the road and at home.

"The Reporter's Specials" ever,
Are from his illustrious brain.
No, he never copies, never--
But he gives the author's name.
He's a Cracker-Jack--you know it--
And we all should bow to him;
But he's very much mistaken
'Bout things scissored "now and then."
"Keep a Tootin'" that was printed
By the Herald once last fall,
Was just grabbed up by that kicker
By that man with lots of gall.
It was printed in his paper;
As for "credit," not at all.
Did he think to give it to us,
"Stolen bodily"--that's all.
Ha! Ha!! Now my fine reporter,
As you in a glass home live,
You had better stop your whining.
Stand up! Take just what you give.

John E. Barrett, Wheeling Civic Leader Is Dead

Funeral services for John E. Barrett, 73 years old, an active and respected citizen of Wheeling, were held Tuesday afternoon at the home where several hundred people were gathered to pay their last respects. Rev. D. C. Morrison of the Wheeling church officiated, assisted by Rev. W. Weir of Deerfield, who read the scripture and Rev. Edges of Green Valley, Illinois, former pastor of the Barretts, who gave a beautiful tribute of Christian friendship.

Several vocal selections were rendered by Rev. H. J. Wiegand, formerly of Wheeling, Mrs. C. Schuessler and Miss A. Schneider accompanied by Mrs. L. C. Holtje. The very beautiful floral tributes were sent testimony to the love for the beautiful held by Mr. Barrett, and which he continually sought to find in his fellow-man, in song, in verse and in the realm of nature. About 100 cars composed the procession those accompanied the body to its final resting place beside his son, in Ridgewood cemetery.

John E. Barrett was born at Argon, Illinois, Feb. 8, 1886, the son of Andrew and Elizabeth Kenney Barrett, natives of Belfast, Ireland. Of a family of ten children only four survive. They are channels of the church, entering into the work of the Wheeling Presbyterian church with his family, soon after coming to the community. He entered wholeheartedly in the whole program of the church, serving in the church school, the choir, as well as the congregation.

In 1915 he took a lead in the enlarging of the church through raising and finishing of basement rooms, and numerous improvements since, found him always ready to accept a large share both in labor and financial help.

Two years ago, with "recovery" still considerably around the corner he launched a much needed movement for the installation of new pews in the church and improvements on the parsonage which he helped faithfully to carry through. At the time of his death he was deeply interested in improvements necessary in view of the coming celebration of the 75th anniversary of the church.

Mr. Barrett served as elder in the Wheeling church from 1921 until his death and including service in former churches, he held the office of elder for 40 years. Mr. Barrett was chosen delegate to the general assembly of the Presbyterian church U. S. A. at Syracuse, New York in 1936, a singular honor bestowed only on those who have achieved it through earnest endeavor and devoted service.

A few years ago Mr. and Mrs. Barrett built a beautiful new home on a part of their farm where they have lived since retiring from active interest in farm work. For the past few winters they have been going to Florida, enough to get their beautiful flower garden in order for the summer.

It was on that return trip from the south a year ago that Mr. Barrett was stricken with the ailment which in time caused his death. It is believed that the tragic death of his idolized and only grand-child, John Carolan Barrett a year ago may have, through grief and shock, brought about a condition which undermined his health.

For the past year he put up a valiant fight, never losing hope and patience, and never ceasing to maintain a creative interest in his family and his fellowmen.

He leaves his devoted wife, Minnie B. Barrett, three sons, Lloyd E. Barrett of Waukegan, Herbert C. Barrett of Prairie View and Harold Barrett of Des Plaines; one brother, three sisters and a number of relatives and a number of friends. These have lost a kind, indulgent and true brother.

The community sustained the loss of a great leader, a great leader, a great leader. His sterling example so endeared him to him in the hearts of his friends that his example to carry on the work so nobly inspired

Wheeling

Friends were pleased to receive an announcement telling of the arrival of a baby boy, William James, to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Witthams of Edison Park. Mrs. Witthams is better known as Adele Richman, who taught school here a number of years ago.

A baby girl was born to the Edward Glueck family last week on Tuesday. Later in the week it was found necessary to remove the mother to a hospital because of complications which developed. The infant is being cared for by the older sister with the help of her aunt. We hope the mother's condition may soon be improved.
