Car kills former sports standout

9-20-05
BY STEVE ZALUSKY

Daily Herald Staff Writer

Until its abrupt and untimely end, J.P. Calandra's life revolved around sports.

A standout in both football and basketball at Wheeling High School, he remained an avid sports fan after his graduation in 1999.

On Sunday, he stayed at Soldier Field for every play of the Chicago Bears' 38-6 win over the Detroit Lions. Then he and longtime friend Allen Bulmash made the long trek back to a South Side parking lot. Bulmash said the two followed a crowd, a route that led them underneath McCormick Place and then toward Lake Shore Drive.

Bulmash said there was no traffic in the northbound lane, so Calandra, walking a little ahead of his friend, crossed a guardrail and waited on a shoulder for southbound traffic to clear. "He wasn't going to cross (yet)," Bulmash said. "There was too much traffic to even think about crossing."

Bulmash said he heard a screeching, then saw a car moving across three lanes of traffic on southbound Lake Shore Drive. The next thing he saw was his friend in the air.

Chicago Police spokeswoman Robin Mohr said the vehicle, a Pontiac Grand Am, struck the victim after swerving to avoid an accident. The incident occurred at 3:45 p.m. in the 2400 block of South Lake Shore Drive, Mohr said.

No citations were issued to the driver, police said. Calandra, 24, who suffered blunt trauma, was pronounced dead at Northwestern Memorial Hospital at 4:16 p.m. Sunday.

"Definitely sports was his life," Calandra's father Ron said. "From when he was a little boy until college, he played sports every day he could."

And he was good at it. So good that he made the varsity team in basketball as a freshman and in football as a sophomore. As a junior, he earned all-area honors in basketball.

"In my experience here, he was, if not the best all around male athlete we had, certainly one of the top two or three," said Pat Doyle, his former high school basketball coach.

In his freshman year, Calandra played for a basketball squad that upset undefeated Deerfield in Wheeling's holiday tournament.

During his high school career, Calandra battled a series of tough injuries, including a broken hand, a broken ankle and a torn knee ligament.

Calandra briefly played football at Illinois State University, before starting his own business doing carpentry and moving into the city.

"School was never his thing," said his friend Aaron Anderson. He was more into using his hands, Anderson said.

Carpentry was a trade that led to a joke between him and friends, who called him J.C. because of his shoulder-length hair.

"We have pictures from Halloween. He looks just like Jesus Christ," said Anderson, who not only lived with Calandra but was also his teammate on the Wheeling High School football squad. In fact, Anderson said, his friends recently commemorated a rare haircut by keeping his hair in a bag.

Anderson said Calandra lived every day like it was his last.

At 6 feet, 4 inches tall and 240 pounds, Anderson said, Calandra was "a huge guy with a huge heart. Sports, friends and family. That's what he lived for."

Dear Sir:

I am doing family research and have discovered that part of my family settled in Wheeling in the early 1850s and remained in the area for approximately 30 years. Since I do not live in Illinois it is difficult for me to check your resources myself and I hoped that perhaps we could provide each other information of benefit to both of us.

The family I am interested in is Daniel and Anne Cameron, who immigrated to the US in 1851 with their eight children, two of whom were already married. They farmed in Wheeling until the farm was sold in 1879 or 80. I have copies of plat books from that period and know the farm was located along the west side of the Des Plaines River as well as some other property on the opposite of the river. I understand that most of this property is currently in a wildlife area.

I found a copy of your book with pictures of Wheeling history on-line and it was a very interesting look at Wheeling. I particularly noted the picture of a bridge built by the Allison family to connect their farm on both sides of the river. I believe the Camerons were located in the immediate vicinity.

I have been unable to verify death dates for Daniel and Anne Cameron, although based on census records, it must have been during the 1860s. I would appreciate your assistance with any suggestions. I have had research done at the Arlington Heights Library without success. Are there any cemeteries in Wheeling that existed during the 1860s? Do you have any other resources that might include data from that period? They had a cheese making business at their farm, so I am also interested in finding out if you have any information about such businesses in Wheeling.

I have found quite a bit of information about the eldest son of Daniel and Anne, also named Daniel. He organized and led the 65th IL Infantry Regiment during the Civil War, which included other Wheeling residents. After the War, he was very active in Democratic politics in Illinois and was a representative to the Illinois constitutional convention in the 1870s. Unfortunately I do not have any original information from him.

If you can provide me any information about Wheeling during this period or about the Camerons in particular, I would appreciate it. Thank you for your assistance.

Dear Patricia Morrison,

Nov. 6, 2005

I received your letter this week and have been working on our records to find any thing on the Cameron family. I did find Daniel Cameron Jr. Civil War record.. He enlisted in the 65th IL. Infantry Regiment in March 24, 1862 and date of muster was March 1, 1862, rank was Lt. Colonel. Reenlisted May 1, 1862 and promoted to Colonel May 1, 1862. He resigned the regiment on July 31, 1864. I found this info from <http://www.rootsweb.com/~ilcivlw/f&s/065-fs.htm>. I also have a book on the veterans of Civil War which I will check this week.

I am going over to Buffalo Grove local museum this Sunday afternoon to see if they would have any local survey plots covering the period of 1850-1880's. So far I haven't found any info on our maps concerning the family farm as we are missing some maps during those dates.

Our cemetery dates from the 1860's but I can't find any Camerons buried there. I will keep searching for you with some of the local church records of that period. I will e-mail any info I find to you as soon as possible..

Thank you for your inquires on your family.

Linda Reading, curator Wheeling Historical Society.

Firefighters honor one of their own

BY SHAMUS TOOMEY
Daily Herald Staff Writer

Wheeling firefighters past and present honored one of their own Tuesday at funeral services for a longtime volunteer firefighter killed last week when he was struck by a car.

Douglas H. "Buck" Cargill, a retired ComEd employee, served more than 30 years as a volunteer firefighter, bridging the transition period in the 1970s when the department changed from a volunteer to a full-time force, said retired Wheeling Fire Chief Bernie Koeppen.

To honor Cargill's commitment to Wheeling — a commitment that began when he and Koeppen volunteered for the force in 1947 — Wheeling had a fire engine escort Cargill's body from a Wheeling funeral home to a nearby cemetery.

"After all these years, and the guys still thinking of him, I think he'd really appreciate that," Koeppen said.

Cargill, who served in the Navy in World War II, died at age 79 last Wednesday when a car struck him outside his home near Wauconda as he checked his mail, police said.

During a service for him Tuesday, family members remembered him as a "no-nonsense" man who would help anyone. Don Malin, a recently retired Wheeling firefighter who served with Cargill, said his friend was a good firefighter, a nice guy and a "great coach" of the department's baseball team.

"He was a good mentor to the younger guys coming on," he said.

Who's Who in Wheeling

COOK COUNTY Herald April 22, 1932

Fred "Scotty" Cargill is well known in Wheeling for many years as a successful businessman and civic leader.

A resident of Wheeling since he was eleven, Scotty attended school here and at Maine township high school. He has operated his present garage for fifteen years.

During these years he has been a member of the Chamber of Commerce, served a term as its president, and is now on the Board of Directors.

He is a village trustee, president of the Businessman's association, and president of the new Lions club.

Scotty is pleased to be at the head of this new organization in Wheeling and feels certain that it will be a success. "The main purpose of the group," he says, "is to discuss and improve local business conditions."

Scotty says further, that the group will cooperate, rather than compete with the Chamber of Commerce. "The only time the Lions club will make any drive for funds will be in connection with the Chamber of Commerce."

"Our Chamber of Commerce," states Scotty, "is a well established group for businessmen which provides the community with valuable services. The Lions Club wants to assist the C. of C. in every way possible in addition to carrying on its own work."

Story of German POWs in Midwest camps at exhibit

"Camp Pine" sounds quaint but in reality it was a prisoner of war camp set up near Des Plaines during World War II. "Held in the Heartland," a traveling exhibit exploring the human context of the German POWs' experience in America, will be in Des Plaines from noon-7 p.m. Friday, June 12.

The BUS-eum 3, a mobile museum, will be parked in front of the Des Plaines Public Library, at 1501 Ellinwood St.

In addition to exploring the exhibit, the public is invited to a reception and talk at 7 p.m. This program is sponsored by Friends of the Library and entrance is free.

Visit dppl.org or phone (847) 827-5551 for details and information.

The "Held in the Heartland" story is told using narrative panels, short documentary films, artifacts and more. In addition to delivering a powerful look into our past, this exhibit reflects issues at play in the world today.

POW experiences universally embody ageless, timely themes of war and peace, justice under arms, human rights, reconciliation and avoidance of future conflicts.

The "Held In the Heartland" exhibit explores the human context of the POW experience. Were German POWs generally treated well or treated poorly while held captive in the US? How has that treatment affected the standing of the US both in Europe and the world at large? In what settings did German POWs encounter Midwesterners? Were these encounters generally positive or negative and what were the lasting impacts?

The public can learn more about this exhibit and preview exhibit's texts and photos online at TRACES.org.

At the 7 p.m. talk and reception, Irving Kellman, a docent for TRACES Center for History and Culture, will speak about the German POW experience in the United States.

Local residents are invited to bring stories, photos, letters, artwork or other "traces" of their families' direct encounters with Camp Pine POWs who worked in the Des Plaines area to the reception, as well.

Lucille E. Cerwin

The funeral Mass for Lucille E. Cerwin will be held at 11 a.m. Friday, Dec. 11, 2009 at St. Edna Parish, 2525 N. Arlington Heights Road, Arlington Heights.

Visitation will be from 3 to 9 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 10, at Glueckert Funeral Home, Ltd., 1520 N. Arlington Heights Road, Arlington Heights, and from 10 until the time of Mass on Friday, at the church.

Born Aug. 12, 1942, to Joseph and Carmela Pagani, she died Tuesday, Dec. 8, 2009, at the University of Chicago Hospital.

Lucy raised her family in Arlington Heights, and later moved to Wheeling.

Lucy was a graduate of Loyola University and received a M.S. degree from National Louis University. As a lifelong educator and dedicated teacher for over 40 years, Lucy guided and taught thousands of elementary and middle school students with compassion and grace. She served in many teaching and administrative positions throughout the northwest suburbs of Chicago, including positions at Cooper Middle School in Buffalo Grove, River Trails Middle School in Mt. Prospect, and Euclid Elementary School in Mount Prospect. In addition to her daytime teaching, Lucy also taught adult education classes in ESL (English as a Second Language). Most recently she served as assistant principal of Euclid Elementary School. Lucy retired in 2004.

As the daughter of an immigrant, Lucy was a strong and vocal advocate for educational equality for all children, regardless of their race, socioeconomic status or country of origin. For many years she served as an ESL educator and program director where she mentored and taught young children to prepare them for a successful life in their new homeland. Lucy was also instrumental in the fight for laws in Illinois that mandated an equal education for special needs students through to age 21.

The courage that Lucy showed throughout her life as an educator is further exemplified by her end-of-life battle with non-Hodgkin's lymphoma, where she agreed to participate in several experimental programs that she hoped would help others.

Lucy was a loving and devoted mother to John (Lori) Cerwin, Christina Cerwin and Peter (Stacy) Cerwin. She was cherished Nonna Lucy to Jake and Luke Cerwin. She was the dear sister of Joseph (Diane) Pagani and Rose (Douglas) Gordon.

Lucy was preceded in death by her parents, the late Joseph and Carmela Pagani.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Lambs Farm at <http://www.lambsfarm.org/youcanhelp/gift.html> in the name of Lucille Cerwin. Lambs Farm is a non-profit organization serving adults with developmental disabilities.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free. I'm following the path God laid for me. I took His hand when I heard Him call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I've found that peace at the close of day. If my parting has left a void, then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, ah, yes, these things I too shall miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much. Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief. Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and share with me. God wanted me now; He set me free.

JEAN KATHERINE JOHNSON CIMA

Jean Katherine Johnson Cima of Huntley Jean Katherine Johnson Cima, 72, passed away peacefully in her home on Sept. 13, 2012, with her family by her side. She leaves behind an immediate family that will miss her dearly: her husband, Mario A.; her children, Mario J. and Cynara; their spouses, Debbie (nee Minick) and Todd Pierzina, who she welcomed into her family graciously; six grandchildren who she spoiled shamelessly and showered with love; and her brother, Richard Johnson (Delores). She is also survived by an extended family and uncountable friends who she touched during her long life. Jean attended Augustana School of Nursing in Chicago and enjoyed many facets of nursing, but found her passion in school nursing and worked at Wheeling High School for over 15 years. She raised her family in Buffalo Grove before retiring to Huntley. She was always willing to give her time, her attention and her gifts to those around her. She and Marty didn't miss their grandchildren's hockey games, piano recitals, baseball games, gymnastics meets or soccer games. She never refused a request to help her children, whether it was with gentle guidance, parenting tips or emergency babysitting. Her family and friends will miss her so much. LET US PRAY

Holy Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil.
 May God rebuke him, we humbly pray;
 and do you, O Prince of the heavenly host,
 by the divine power thrust into hell Satan and all the other evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls.
 Amen.

Wheeling man killed after car strikes him

BY CHARLES KEESHAN

ckeeshan@dailyherald.com

03/03/2016

A 37-year-old Wheeling man died Wednesday morning after he was struck by a car while walking along Quentin Road near Riemer Reservoir Park in Palatine.

Kelly L. Corcoran was pronounced dead shortly after arrival at Northwest Community Hospital in Arlington Heights, where he had been taken with severe injuries, Palatine police said.

According to police, Corcoran was walking in the right southbound lane of Quentin Road between Willow and Wood streets when he was hit at about 12:58 a.m. by a 2013 Subaru Legacy driven by a 26-year-old Palatine area man. Corcoran was dressed in dark clothing and not using a nearby sidewalk, police said.

The driver, who was not injured, immediately called 911, police said.

Palatine Deputy Police

Chief Michael Seebacher said investigators are still working to determine why Corcoran was walking in the roadway at almost 1 a.m.

Quentin Road was closed for almost five hours while the multijurisdictional Serious Traffic Accident Reconstruction (STAR) Team conducted a reconstruction investigation.

No citations have been issued at this time, but the crash remains under investigation, police said.

2 Wheeling men killed in crash

Two Wheeling men were killed early Friday evening in a head-on crash on Route 83 just north of Westmoreland Drive near Vernon Hills.

A Lake County Sheriff's Department spokeswoman said Sol Bermea, 37, of 1575 Sand Pebble Drive, and Daniel Crepas, 29, of 124 N. Milwaukee Ave., were both pronounced dead upon arrival at Condell Memorial Hospital in Libertyville following the collision, which occurred around 5:40 p.m.

Police said Bermea was northbound on Route 83 and swerved into the southbound, striking Crepas' vehicle. There were no passengers in either vehicle.

Alcohol may have played a part in the crash, the sheriff's department spokesman said. Friends who were with Bermea before the crash told sheriff's deputies that he was drinking and celebrating his birthday before the crash.

Lake County Coroner Barbara Richardson said Monday it may be midweek or later before her department receives toxicology lab tests to determine whether Bermea was intoxicated at the time of the crash.

Car kills former sports standout

9-20-05
BY STEVE ZALUSKY

Daily Herald Staff Writer

Until its abrupt and untimely end, J.P. Calandra's life revolved around sports.

A standout in both football and basketball at Wheeling High School, he remained an avid sports fan after his graduation in 1999.

J.P. Calandra

On Sunday, he stayed at Soldier Field for every play of the Chicago Bears' 38-6 win over the Detroit Lions. Then he and longtime friend Allen Bulmash made the long trek back to a South Side parking lot. Bulmash said the two followed a crowd, a route that led them underneath McCormick Place and then toward Lake Shore Drive.

Bulmash said there was no traffic in the northbound lane, so Calandra, walking a little ahead of his friend, crossed a guardrail and waited on a shoulder for southbound traffic to clear. "He wasn't going to cross (yet)," Bulmash said. "There was too much traffic to even think about crossing."

Bulmash said he heard a screeching, then saw a car moving across three lanes of traffic on southbound Lake Shore Drive. The next thing he saw was his friend in the air.

Chicago Police spokeswoman Robin Mohr said the vehicle, a Pontiac Grand Am, struck the victim after swerving to avoid an accident. The incident occurred at 3:45 p.m. in the 2400 block of South Lake Shore Drive, Mohr said.

No citations were issued to the driver, police said.

Calandra, 24, who suffered blunt trauma, was pronounced dead at Northwestern Memorial Hospital at 4:16 p.m. Sunday.

"Definitely sports was his life," Calandra's father Ron said. "From when he was a little boy until college, he played sports every day he could."

And he was good at it. So good that he made the varsity team in basketball as a freshman and in football as a sophomore. As a junior, he earned all-area honors in basketball.

"In my experience here, he was, if not the best all around male athlete we had, certainly one of the top two or three," said Pat Doyle, his former high school basketball coach.

In his freshman year, Calandra played for a basketball squad that upset undefeated Deerfield in Wheeling's holiday tournament.

During his high school career, Calandra battled a series of tough injuries, including a broken hand, a broken ankle and a torn knee ligament.

Calandra briefly played football at Illinois State University, before starting his own business doing carpentry and moving into the city.

"School was never his thing," said his friend Aaron Anderson. He was more into using his hands, Anderson said.

Carpentry was a trade that led to a joke between him and friends, who called him J.C. because of his shoulder-length hair.

"We have pictures from Halloween. He looks just like Jesus Christ," said Anderson, who not only lived with Calandra but was also his teammate on the Wheeling High School football squad. In fact, Anderson said, his friends recently commemorated a rare haircut by keeping his hair in a bag.

Anderson said Calandra lived every day like it was his last.

At 6 feet, 4 inches tall and 240 pounds, Anderson said, Calandra was "a huge guy with a huge heart. Sports, friends and family. That's what he lived for."

Dear Sir:

I am doing family research and have discovered that part of my family settled in Wheeling in the early 1850s and remained in the area for approximately 30 years. Since I do not live in Illinois it is difficult for me to check your resources myself and I hoped that perhaps we could provide each other information of benefit to both of us.

The family I am interested in is Daniel and Anne Cameron, who immigrated to the US in 1851 with their eight children, two of whom were already married. They farmed in Wheeling until the farm was sold in 1879 or 80. I have copies of plat books from that period and know the farm was located along the west side of the Des Plaines River as well as some other property on the opposite of the river. I understand that most of this property is currently in a wildlife area.

I found a copy of your book with pictures of Wheeling history on-line and it was a very interesting look at Wheeling. I particularly noted the picture of a bridge built by the Allison family to connect their farm on both sides of the river. I believe the Camerons were located in the immediate vicinity.

I have been unable to verify death dates for Daniel and Anne Cameron, although based on census records, it must have been during the 1860s. I would appreciate your assistance with any suggestions. I have had research done at the Arlington Heights Library without success. Are there any cemeteries in Wheeling that existed during the 1860s? Do you have any other resources that might include data from that period? They had a cheese making business at their farm, so I am also interested in finding out if you have any information about such businesses in Wheeling.

I have found quite a bit of information about the eldest son of Daniel and Anne, also named Daniel. He organized and led the 65th IL Infantry Regiment during the Civil War, which included other Wheeling residents. After the War, he was very active in Democratic politics in Illinois and was a representative to the Illinois constitutional convention in the 1870s. Unfortunately I do not have any original information from him.

If you can provide me any information about Wheeling during this period or about the Camerons in particular, I would appreciate it. Thank you for your assistance.

Dear Patricia Morrison,

Nov. 6, 2005

I received your letter this week and have been working on our records to find any thing on the Cameron family. I did find Daniel Cameron Jr. Civil War record.. He enlisted in the 65th IL. Infantry Regiment in March 24, 1862 and date of muster was March 1, 1862, rank was Lt. Colonel. Reenlisted May 1, 1862 and promoted to Colonel May 1, 1862. He resigned the regiment on July 31, 1864. I found this info from <http://www.rootsweb.com/~ilcivilw/f&s/065-fs.htm>. I also have a book on the veterans of Civil War which I will check this week.

I am going over to Buffalo Grove local museum this Sunday afternoon to see if they would have any local survey plots covering the period of 1850-1880's. So far I haven't found any info on our maps concerning the family farm as we are missing some maps during those dates.

Our cemetery dates from the 1860's but I can't find any Camerons buried there. I will keep searching for you with some of the local church records of that period. I will e-mail any info I find to you as soon as possible..

Thank you for your inquires on your family.

Linda Reading, curator Wheeling Historical Society.

Douglas H. Cargill, 79, of Grayslake and formerly of Wheeling, died Jan. 27. Services were held Feb. 2 at Kolsak Funeral Home Ltd., Wheeling, followed by interment in Wheeling Cemetery.

Born April 25, 1919, in Wheeling, he was a manager at Commonwealth Edison prior to his retirement. He was also a volunteer fireman in Wheeling.

He is survived by his wife Marion S. (nee Sternberg); his Rebecca (Don) Johnson and Cheramie Carroll; his sister Jessie Miller; and two grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, John and Rebecca (nee Hartman).

Firefighters honor one of their own

By SHAMUS TOOMEY
Daily Herald Staff Writer

Wheeling firefighters past and present honored one of their own Tuesday at funeral services for a longtime volunteer firefighter killed last week when he was struck by a car.

Douglas H. "Buck" Cargill, a retired ComEd employee, served more than 30 years as a volunteer firefighter, bridging the transition period in the 1970s when the department changed from a volunteer to a full-time force, said

retired Wheeling Fire Chief Bernie Koeppen.

To honor Cargill's commitment to Wheeling — a commitment that began when he and Koeppen volunteered for the force in 1947 — Wheeling had a fire engine escort Cargill's body from a Wheeling funeral home to a nearby cemetery.

"After all these years, and the guys still thinking of him, I think he'd really appreciate that," Koeppen said.

Cargill, who served in the Navy in World War II, died at age 79 last Wednesday when a car struck him outside his home near Wauconda as he checked his mail, police said.

During a service for him Tuesday, family members remembered him as a "no-nonsense" man who would help anyone. Don Malin, a recently retired Wheeling firefighter who served with Cargill, said his friend was a good firefighter, a nice guy and a "great coach" of the department's baseball team.

"He was a good mentor to the younger guys coming on," he said.

Who's Who in Wheeling

COOK COUNTY Herald April 22, 1937

Fred "Scotty" Cargill is well known in Wheeling for many years as a successful businessman and civic leader.

A resident of Wheeling since he was eleven, Scotty attended school here and at Maine township high school. He has operated his present garage for fifteen years.

During these years he has been a member of the Chamber of Commerce, served a term as its president, and is now on the Board of Directors.

He is a village trustee, president of the Businessman's association, and president of the new Lions club.

Scotty is pleased to be at the head of this new organization in Wheeling and feels certain that it will be a success. "The main purpose of the group," he says, "is to discuss and improve local business conditions."

Scotty says further, that the group will cooperate, rather than compete with the Chamber of Commerce. "The only time the Lions club will make any drive for funds will be in connection with the Chamber of Commerce."

"Our Chamber of Commerce," states Scotty, "is a well established group for businessmen which provides the community with valuable services. The Lions Club wants to assist the C. of C. in every way possible in addition to carrying on its own work."

Story of German POWs in Midwest camps at exhibit

"Camp Pine" sounds quaint but in reality it was a prisoner of war camp set up near Des Plaines during World War II. "Held in the Heartland," a traveling exhibit exploring the human context of the German POWs' experience in America, will be in Des Plaines from noon-7 p.m. Friday, June 12.

The BUS-eum 3, a mobile museum, will be parked in front of the Des Plaines Public Library, at 1501 Ellinwood St.

In addition to exploring the exhibit, the public is invited to a reception and talk at 7 p.m. This program is sponsored by Friends of the Library and entrance is free.

Visit dppl.org or phone (847) 827-5551 for details and information.

The "Held in the Heartland" story is told using narrative panels, short documentary films, artifacts and more. In addition to delivering a powerful look into our past, this exhibit reflects issues at play in the world today.

POW experiences universally embody ageless, timely themes of war and peace, justice under arms, human rights, reconciliation and avoidance of future conflicts.

The "Held In the Heartland" exhibit explores the human context of the POW experience. Were German POWs generally treated well or treated poorly while held captive in the US? How has that treatment affected the standing of the US both in Europe and the world at large? In what settings did German POWs encounter Midwesterners? Were these encounters generally positive or negative and what were the lasting impacts?

The public can learn more about this exhibit and preview exhibit's texts and photos online at TRACES.org.

At the 7 p.m. talk and reception, Irving Kellman, a docent for TRACES Center for History and Culture, will speak about the German POW experience in the United States.

Local residents are invited to bring stories, photos, letters, artwork or other "traces" of their families' direct encounters with Camp Pine POWs who worked in the Des Plaines area to the reception, as well.

Lucille E. Cerwin

The funeral Mass for Lucille E. Cerwin will be held at 11 a.m. Friday, Dec. 11, 2009 at St. Edna Parish, 2525 N. Arlington Heights Road, Arlington Heights

Visitation will be from 3 to 9 p.m. Thursday, Dec. 10, at Glueckert Funeral Home, Ltd., 1520 N. Arlington Heights Road, Arlington Heights, and from 10 until the time of Mass on Friday, at the church.

Born Aug. 12, 1942, to Joseph and Carmela Pagani, she died Tuesday, Dec. 8, 2009, at the University of Chicago Hospital.

Lucy raised her family in Arlington Heights, and later moved to Wheeling.

Lucy was a graduate of Loyola University and received a M.S. degree from National Louis University. As a lifelong educator and dedicated teacher for over 40 years, Lucy guided and taught thousands of elementary and middle school students with compassion and grace. She served in many teaching and administrative positions throughout the northwest suburbs of Chicago, including positions at Cooper Middle School in Buffalo Grove, River Trails Middle School in Mt Prospect, and Euclid Elementary School in Mount Prospect. In addition to her daytime teaching, Lucy also taught adult education classes in ESL (English as a Second Language). Most recently she served as assistant principal of Euclid Elementary School. Lucy retired in 2004.

As the daughter of an immigrant, Lucy was a strong and vocal advocate for educational equality for all children, regardless of their race, socioeconomic status or country of origin. For many years she served as an ESL educator and program director where she mentored and taught young children to prepare them for a successful life in their new homeland. Lucy was also instrumental in the fight for laws in Illinois that mandated an equal education for special needs students through to age 21.

The courage that Lucy showed throughout her life as an educator is further exemplified by her end-of-life battle with non-Hodgkin's lymphoma, where she agreed to participate in several experimental programs that she hoped would help others.

Lucy was a loving and devoted mother to John (Lori) Cerwin, Christina Cerwin and Peter (Stacy) Cerwin. She was cherished Nonna Lucy to Jake and Luke Cerwin. She was the dear sister of Joseph (Diane) Pagani and Rose (Douglas) Gordon.

Lucy was preceded in death by her parents, the late Joseph and Carmela Pagani.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Lambs Farm at <http://www.lambsfarm.org/youcanhelp/gift.html> in the name of Lucille Cerwin. Lambs Farm is a non-profit organization serving adults with developmental disabilities.

I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, for now I'm free. I'm following the path God laid for me. I took His hand when I heard Him call. I turned my back and left it all. I could not stay another day, to laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way. I've found that peace at the close of day. If my parting has let a void, then fill it with remembered joy. A friendship shared, a laugh, a kiss, ah, yes, these things I too shall miss. Be not burdened with times of sorrow. I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow. My life's been full, I savored much. Good friends, good times, a loved ones touch. Perhaps my time seemed all too brief. Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and share with me. God wanted me now; He set me free.

A 37-year-old Wheeling man died Wednesday morning after he was struck by a car while walking along Quentin Road near Riemer Reservoir Park in Palatine.

Kelly L. Corcoran was pronounced dead shortly after arrival at Northwest Community Hospital in Arlington Heights, where he had been taken with severe injuries, Palatine police said.

According to police, Corcoran was walking in the right southbound lane of Quentin Road between Willow and Wood streets when he was hit at about 12:58 a.m. by a 2013 Subaru Legacy driven by a 26-year-old Palatine area man. Corcoran was dressed in dark clothing and not using a nearby sidewalk, police said.

The driver, who was not injured, immediately called 911, police said.

Palatine Deputy Police

Chief Michael Seebacher said investigators are still working to determine why Corcoran was walking in the roadway at almost 1 a.m.

Quentin Road was closed for almost five hours while the multijurisdictional Serious Traffic Accident Reconstruction (STAR) Team conducted a reconstruction investigation.

No citations have been issued at this time, but the crash remains under investigation, police said.

2 Wheeling men killed in crash

Two Wheeling men were killed early Friday evening in a head-on crash on Route 83 just north of Westmoreland Drive near Vernon Hills.

A Lake County Sheriff's Department spokeswoman said Sol Bermea, 37, of 1575 Sand Pebble Drive, and Daniel Crepas, 29, of 124 N. Milwaukee Ave., were both pronounced dead upon arrival at Condel Memorial Hospital in Libertyville following the collision, which occurred around 5:40 p.m.

Police said Bermea was northbound on Route 83 and swerved into the southbound, striking Crepas' vehicle. There were no passengers in either vehicle.

Alcohol may have played a part in the crash, the sheriff's department spokesman said. Friends who were with Bermea before the crash told sheriff's deputies that he was drinking and celebrating his birthday before the crash.

Lake County Coroner Barbara Richardson said Monday it may be midweek or later before her department receives toxicology lab tests to determine whether Bermea was intoxicated at the time of the crash.

Wheeling teen struck, killed by car on Milwaukee

Countryside Reminders March 30, 1978
 A 16-year-old Wheeling youth was killed Monday evening when struck by a van while walking down Milwaukee Avenue in Prospect Heights.

Michael Cuevas, 331 E. Dennis, died at Holy Family Hospital about 10 p.m., an hour after the accident. A friend, Michael J. Fox, 14, of 1092 Kennilworth, who was walking with Cuevas, was uninjured.

Driver of the van was Frank A. Carr, 45, of Northbrook. He was charged with failure to yield to a pedestrian and is scheduled to appear in the Niles branch of Cook County Court on May 2.

• According to police reports, Cuevas and Fox were walking north on Milwaukee Avenue when the van, also traveling north, struck Cuevas. Carr said he did not see the victim in time to stop and the victim was walking to the left of the white line and in the roadway. Fox said he and Cuevas were walking to the right of the line and the van appeared to be speeding.

Fox said he and Cuevas had met at Wheeling High School, where both are freshman, and had been friends for about a month. He said Cuevas was a foster child living with Dave Childs of Wheeling and had lived in the area only a few months. Fox said he and Cuevas were walking to a gas station to get a ride home from a friend when the accident occurred.
