FLYING BETWEEN

AND

WEDNESDAY

Hello Sam, I can hardly believe I am so many thousand miles away, am calculating your time now, wondering what Charlotte & you are doing even as I write. I had a lovely flight, good seat, good company, excellent food, almost comparable with the spinning wheel!!! No need to ask for anything, everything was on the tray. I've been telling my father all about it, He wants me to go & have a few hours sleep, but I'm still full of Chicago & should I say "wheeling" ~~because~~ sleep seems a waste.

We made good time, arrived Pretoria about 8 A.M. They looked through my case at Pretoria Charlotte, but said 'pass on' - I nearly "passed out."
 I got air-port bus to Glasgow, from there a bus to Wishaw, arriving here 11.15 A.M. My cousin was waiting at the bus stop (not for me) but when she saw my luggage, she helped me home.

Father was asking what I would like to let,
 I said "well, I doubt if you would have what I've been used to" He is interested and thrilled at all I've been telling him. He says I'm looking better than I have for years, so thanks to my wheeling host for his generosity and kindness to me while under his roof.

2

FLYING BETWEEN

AND

This holiday will give me "roses in December"
 for the rest of my life, I find it difficult to express my feelings, "thanks you" seem so anticlimactic for this wonderful holiday I've just had. As I said, maybe I'll be able to do not as much, but some service for you one day, I hope so.

Will be thinking a lot of the work you do, and trust you will be given the strength and patience for I realize this is necessary to, in dealing with the public, as well as the animals.
 Charlotte will be able to help you more, now that she is full from darning, so this should ease the position.

Give her my love and again sincere thanks from yours truly - "it's better felt, than told"
 describes my feelings

Charles, God bless you always,
 sincerely
 Fred

TO WISH YOU A MERRY CHRISTMAS

Of course you're always

Whatever the day or year,
But somehow you seem dearer still

Now Christmas Time is here...

And though I wish you

So fondly all year too,
I wish it

still more lovingly

This Christmas Time for you!

Life story

Jill Terreberry ~ 1954-2008

From patient to advocate

BY EILEEN O. DADAY
Daily Herald Correspondent

One of the first Chicago-area recipients of a liver transplant has died. Jill Terreberry, a Wheeling native and former Schaumburg resident, lived more than 20 years after undergoing her historic transplant.

Dr. Thomas Starzl, who had pioneered the procedure in 1963 and is generally recognized as the father of organ transplantation, performed the surgery in 1985 at the University of Pittsburgh Medical Center.

"Back in 1985, (receiving a liver transplant) was pretty unusual," said her sister Judy Mullen of Machesney Park. "She had to travel to Pittsburgh because that's the only place it was being done. Dr. Starzl was the only surgeon doing it."

Her case was profiled in the Daily Herald, as well as on several Chicago-area television stations.

Ms. Terreberry's body, however, finally gave out Nov. 26 after her latest transplant of a new liver and kidney, performed Nov. 24 at Northwestern Memorial Hospital. The Elgin resident was 54.

Family and friends recalled the 1972 Wheeling High School graduate as a vivacious student who performed with the drill team and was elected by the student body to be one of the "calendar girls" for the school's annual fundraiser. At 17, however, her health began to deteriorate. It would be another 10 years, though, before doctors would diagnose Ms. Terreberry with chronic active hepatitis. By then, the disease had ravaged her liver and caused damage serious enough to warrant a transplant.

Ms. Terreberry waited on the transplant list for more than two years before finally receiving her new liver in 1985 at the age of 30.

"She accepted her illness with such amazing grace," Mullen said. "She never complained, never asked, 'Why me?'"

Family members describe the transplant as all that they could have hoped for, giving her more than 20 healthy years.

During those years, she worked full time with Motorola, 3M and BP before most recently working as a property manager with Foster-Premiere Inc. in Buffalo Grove.

She also had time to pursue her love of gardening, travel, and entertaining family and friends.

When she could, Ms. Terreberry helped promote organ donations, both at the Starzl Transplantation Institute in Pittsburgh and in Illinois, including one event where she posed with then-Gov. Jim Edgar and Secretary of State Jesse White. As a long-term survivor, she was a good ambassador for the positive outcomes made possible by transplantation, family members said.

Besides her sister, Ms. Terreberry is survived by her parents, Robert and Bette Terreberry of Schaumburg, a brother, Robert of Naperville, and another sister, Joan Bober of West Dundee.

Services have been held.

Elsie Wiegand was born Jan. 23, 1889, and passed away at her home in Wheeling on Sunday morning, January 31, at the age of 48 years and 8 days.

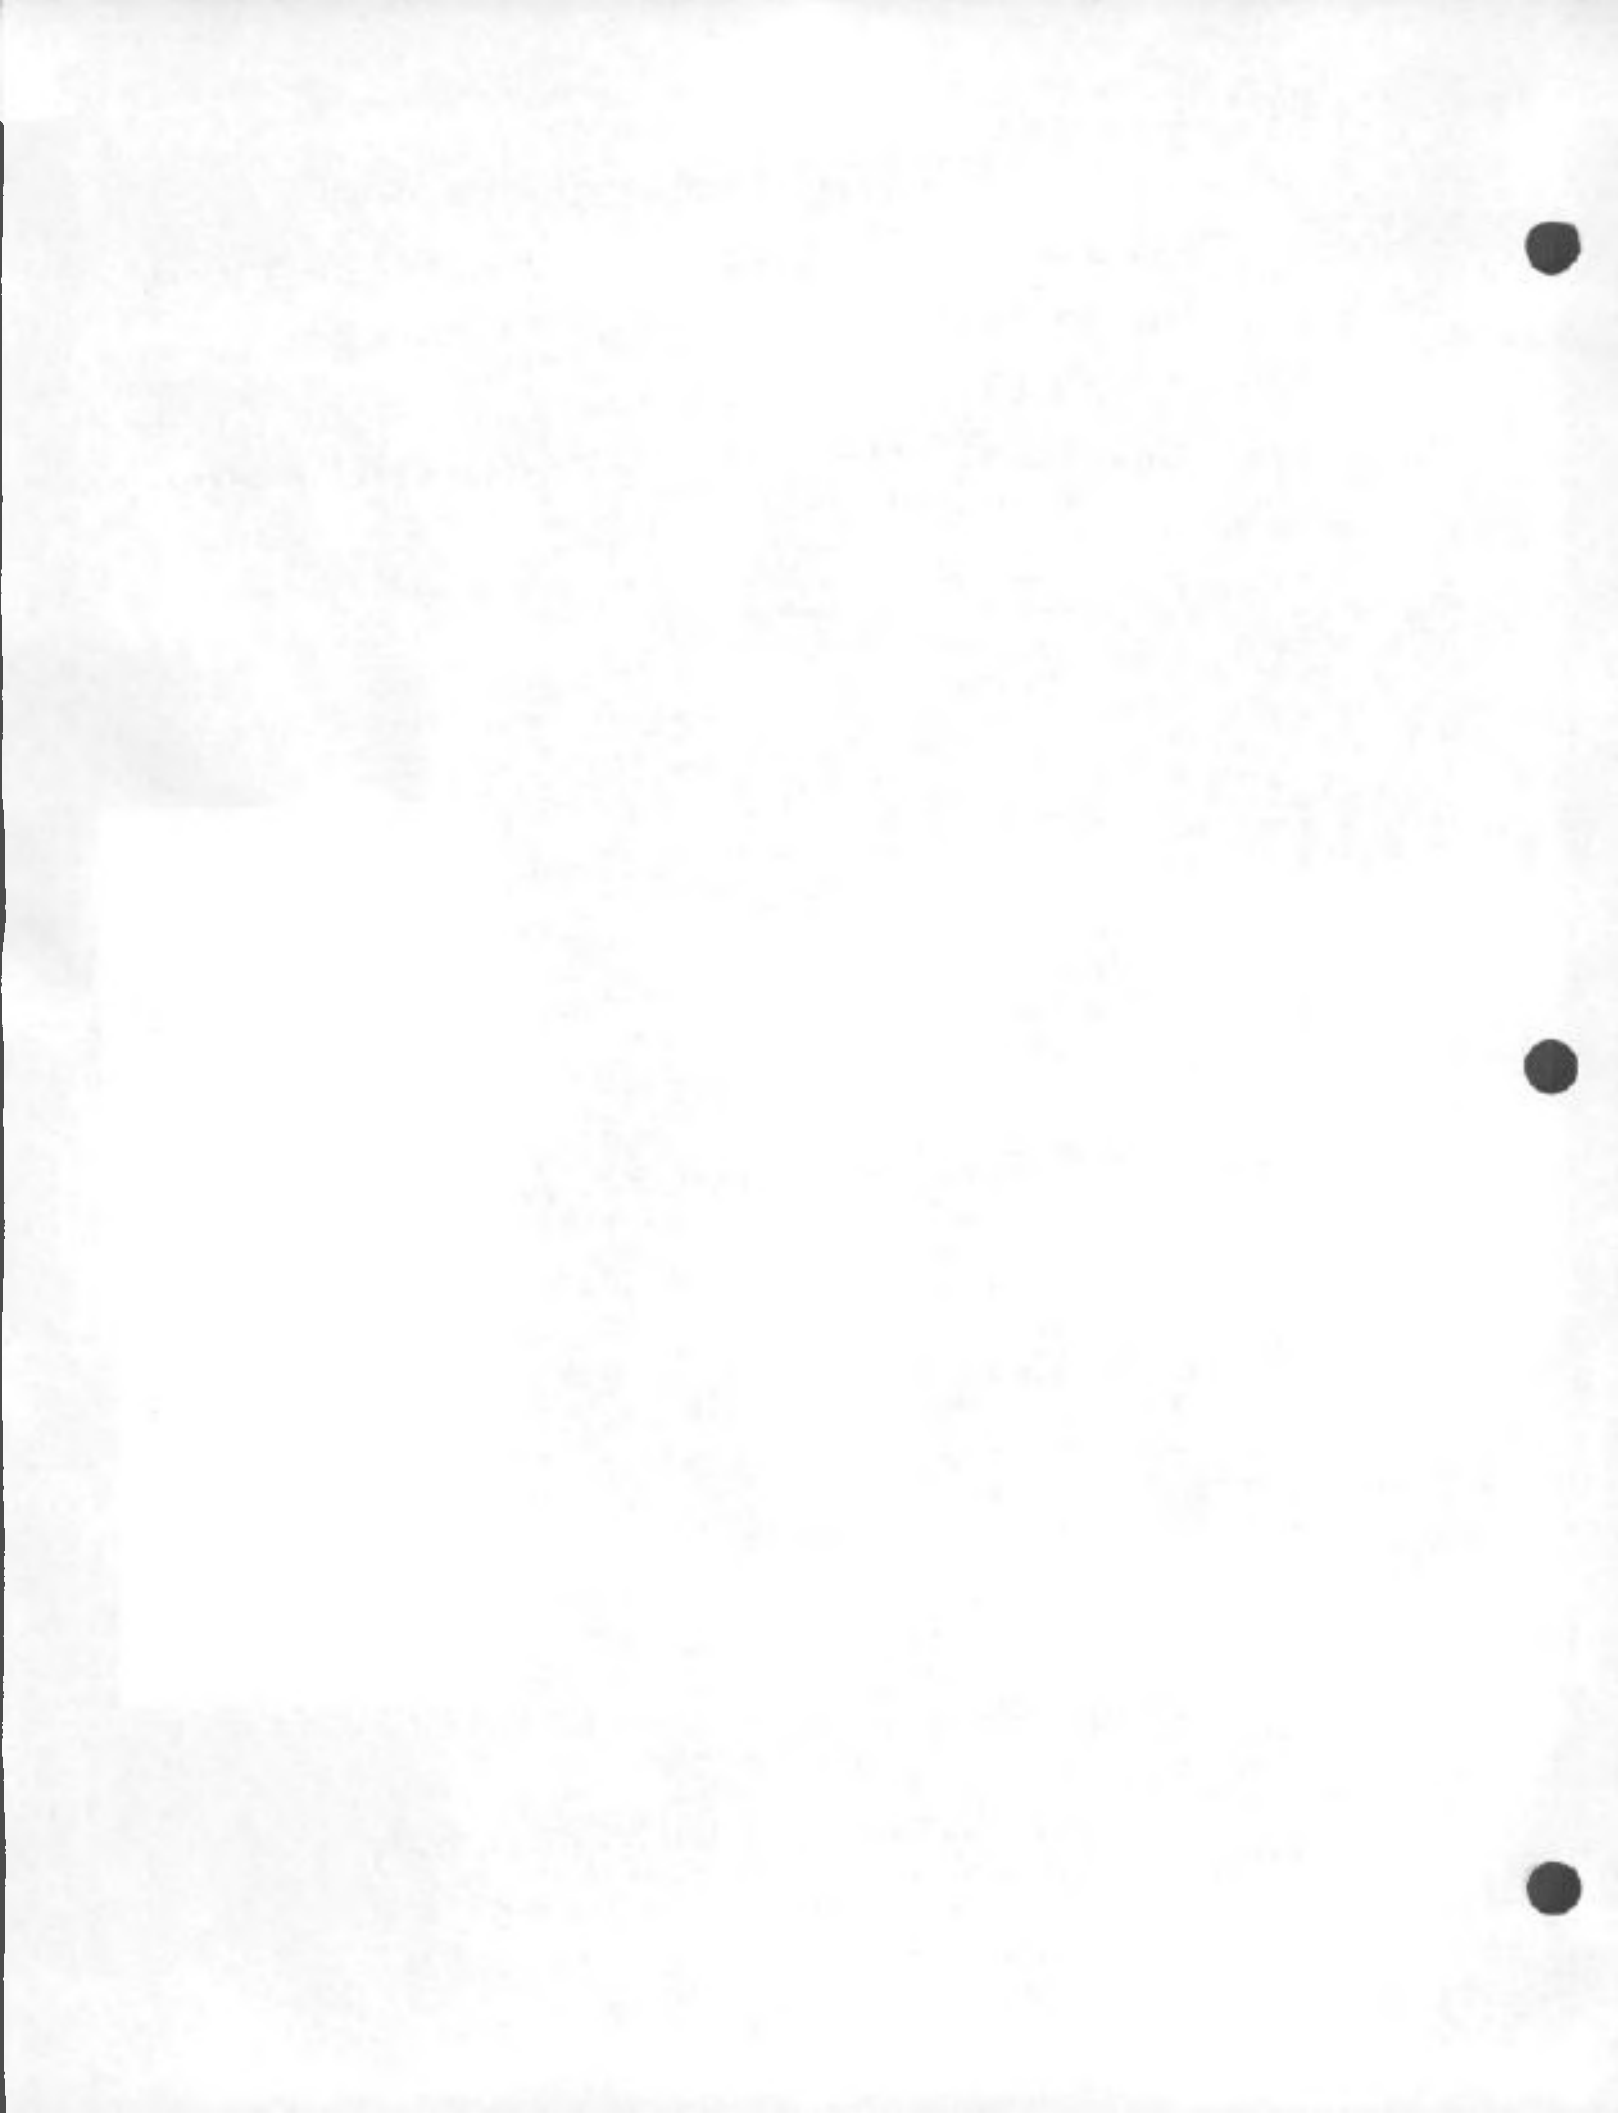

Her girlhood and young womanhood were spent in Chicago, where her family resided. Fifteen years ago she united in holy wedlock with Mr. Jesse Tesch and came to make her home in Wheeling where she has lived since.

The cheerfulness of her disposition won many friends among her associates. She was an active member of the Presbyterian church, Ladies' Aid Society and choir and also Wheeling Chapter O. E. S.

Although she had been confined to her bed for a week, she had refused to consider her illness as serious and her death came as a shock to her relatives and many friends.

Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon at the Presbyterian church which was far too small to accommodate those who wished to pay their last respects to her.

Those who mourn her going, mostly are her husband, one sister, Mrs. Carl Schuessler of Chicago, her two brothers, Mr. John Wiegand of Chicago and Rev. H. J. Wiegand of Naperville, besides many other relatives and friends.

Mr. Henry Tesch, Old Settler Passes On

Mr. Henry Tesch was born in Hanover, Germany, on Feb. 14, 1851. When he was but a year old, his family came to America and located on a farm in this locality, near which the remainder of his life was spent. A little less than a year ago Mrs. Tesch preceded her husband in death, after just a brief illness. Several months ago Mr. Tesch's health began to fail, and he gave up his home to stay with his daughter, Mrs. Jesse Mayer. He suffered considerably the last few weeks until death relieved him on Tuesday morning, Jan. 13. Funeral services were conducted at the home of his daughter on Thursday afternoon and interment made in Wheeling cemetery. He leaves to mourn his passing his four children, Mrs. Jesse Mayer, Mrs. Julius Meinken, Mrs. Edw. Hank and Jesse Tesch; four grandchildren, Hy. Mayer, Grace and Ethel Hank and Lester Tesch. He is also survived by his four brothers and a sister, William, Fred, John and Herman Tesch and Mrs. Lackner, all of Arlington Heights except William, who resides in Wheeling.

STUDENT - WHEELING HIGH SCHOOL

Two Wheeling teens die in car wreck

Two Wheeling High School students died in an automobile accident Sunday while returning to their homes from a trip to Antioch.

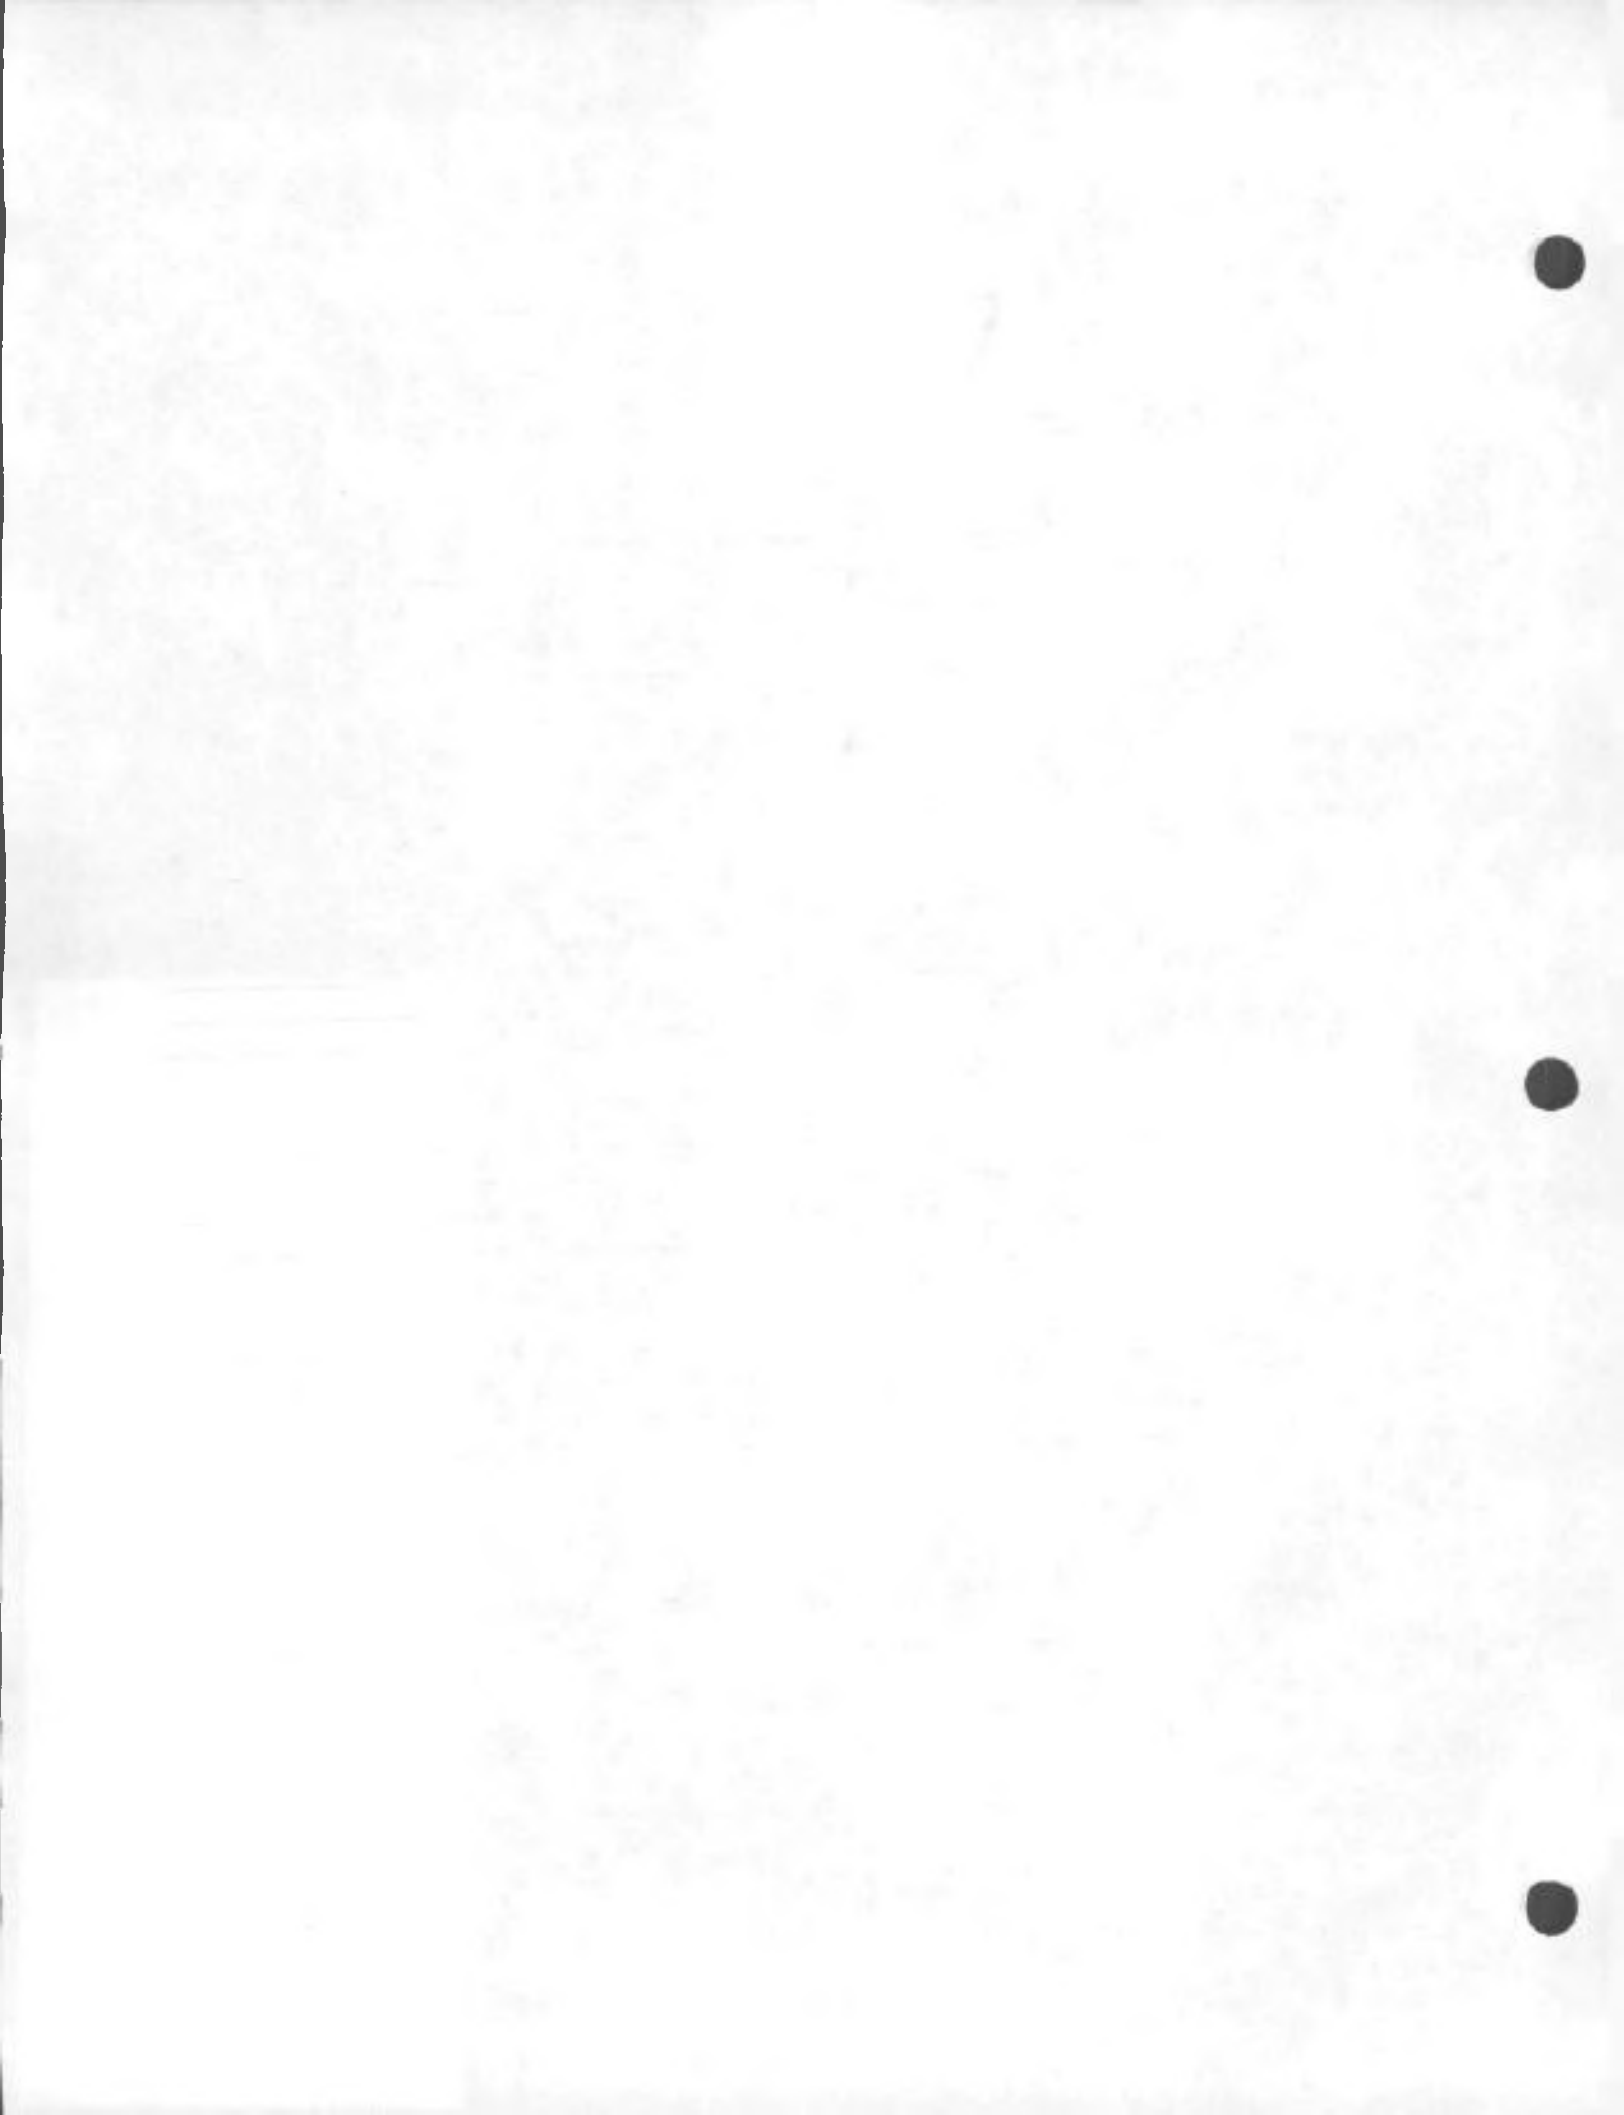

The 16-year-old driver of the car, Mark A. Wycup of 1204 Sarasota in Wheeling, was dead on arrival at St. Therese Hospital in Waukegan, according to Lake County Sheriff's Police reports. Sherri L. Thomas, a passenger in the car, died several hours after the accident, which occurred at 5:50 p.m. Miss Thomas, who lived at 397 Thelma Court in Wheeling, was 15 years old.

The fatal accident took place on Route 45 about a mile south of Route 173 near Zion. Wycup's car collided with the fender of another car which he was apparently attempting to pass. The car went out of control, left the east side of the road, struck a tree and flipped over.

Driver of the other automobile involved was Steven M. Reib, 19, also of Wheeling. Reib and the three passengers in his car were uninjured.

Dr. Thomas Shirley, Wheeling High School principal, delivered a brief eulogy on the school's public address system Tuesday morning, after which students observed a moment of silence in memory of the two accident victims.

Funeral services were to be held for Mark Wycup at 9:30 a.m. and for Sherri Thomas at 2 p.m. Wednesday at Kolssak's Funeral Home in Wheeling.

Funeral services for Gary L. Tjarks, 64, will begin with prayers at 8:45 a.m. Saturday, at Lauterburg & Oehler Funeral Home, 2000 E. Northwest Highway, Arlington Heights, and proceed to Our Lady of the Wayside Church, 432 W. Park St., Arlington Heights, where Mass will be celebrated at 9:30 a.m.

Born Nov. 30, 1937, in Peoria, he died Sunday, Oct. 27, 2002, at Northwest Community Healthcare in Arlington Heights. Entombment will be in Assumption Cemetery, Glenwood.

Mr. Tjarks retired in 1994 after 34 years in education, a career which began as a social science teacher, coach and department chairman at Limestone High School in Bartonville, Ill. He came to High School District 214's Wheeling High School in 1964 and taught social science and coached basketball and cross country. In 1969 he moved to Forest View High School as dean of students and then served as assistant principal from 1973 to 1983. He spent the last 10 years of his career as associate principal of Prospect High School.

Colleagues remember Gary as a tough disciplinarian, who really cared about young people. He is credited with keeping a large number of students in school by helping them solve behavior problems and cope with difficulties in their personal lives. He maintained a love for high school sports, but was equally supportive of the arts and attended essentially every school function. This commitment extended to the community of Arlington Heights, where he had served on the Youth Council and was a member of the Optimist Club. He was also a participant in a Harvard University special summer workshop for moral education in public schools.

Among his other accomplishments, Gary worked closely with the architects and engineers of the field house addition at Forest View High School and managed a series of significant building improvements at Prospect High School. He loved music, good movies, muskie fishing and, most of all, his family, delighting in his grandchildren.

Gary was the beloved husband of Joyce A. Tjarks (nee Genna); loving father of Angela K. (Joseph) Ratzeck and Beth A. (Matthew) Clemens; cherished grandfather of Kathleen Anne, Joseph Vincent, Alexis Genna and Madeline Marie; devoted son of the late W. LaVerne and Joyce L. (nee Cockerell) Tjarks; dear brother of Wendy (Glenn) Buxton of Bartonville, Ill.; fond brother-in-law of Catherine (Stacey) Rodgers of Houston, Texas; and fond uncle of Vicki (Rick) Frye and Michael (Sherril) Buxton. He is also survived by several aunts and many cousins.

Visitation will be from 3 to 9 p.m. Friday, at the funeral home.

Gary Tjarks, a longtime Northwest Suburban High School District 214 administrator who dedicated his life to his schools and his family, died Sunday from complications relating to an earlier stroke.

He was 64.

Tjarks began his District 214 career in 1964 as a teacher and coach at Wheeling High, and served as dean and assistant principal at the former Forest View High before taking over as associate principal at Prospect High, a post he held from 1984 until his retirement a decade later.

For most of his time at Forest View and Prospect, he worked under Principal Jack Martin, a friend who fondly remembers Tjarks as a dedicated educator who insisted all students behave and who would do all he

"Gary put his heart and soul into everything he did. Every time he touched anything, it really turned into a success."

Gary Tjarks widow, Joyce could to ensure that all students were successful. At one point at Forest View High, when Martin had reached the end of his rope with a student, it was Tjarks who stepped in.

"I said, 'You know, this kid's gotta go,'" Martin said. "I remember tears came to Gary's eyes and he said, 'You know how much time I've spent with this kid to get him to where he is now? We can't give up on him.' I was always thankful that Gary talked me into that."

Tjarks was admired by students, some of whom stopped by his Arlington Heights home recently for personal visits. Tjarks also made an extra effort to mainstream special education students, and made it a point to attend school activities. More than once he went with the Forest View High choir during a spring trip.

"I think he went to everything he could possibly get to," said his wife, Joyce Tjarks. "He loved the theater and the choral concerts."

He enjoyed fishing — he'd take an annual trip to Canada to try his hand at catching muskie — and, after retirement, took several trips to Italy, where his wife had family. A stroke hit in 2000. It cost him movement on the right side of his body, and he eventually used a wheelchair.

In the aftermath of the incident, he dictated a story, "Gary's Story," to his daughter — a comical look at the stroke that afflicted his life.

"Gary put his heart and soul into everything he did," his wife said. "Every time he touched anything, it really turned into a success."

Besides his wife, Tjarks also is survived by two daughters and four grandchildren. Visitation is scheduled for 3 to 9 p.m. Friday at Lauterburg & Oehler Funeral Home, 2000 E. Northwest Highway in Arlington Heights. Mass is set for 9:30 a.m. Saturday at Our Lady of the Wayside, 434 W. Park St. in Arlington Heights.

I Did Not Die

Do not stand at my grave and weep

I am not there, I do not sleep.

I am a thousand winds that blow;

I am the diamond glints of snow.

I am the sunlight on ripened grain;

I am the gentle autumn's rain.

When you awaken in the morning's hush,

I am the swift uplifting rush of quiet birds in circled flight.

I am the soft stars that shine at night.

Do not stand at my grave and cry.

I am not there, I did not die.
