BARBARA CROWELL

May 28 1916

Barbara Crowell, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Crowell at 2:30 Sunday afternoon was taken away by the cruel heartless hand of death in the Westside hospital, Chicago, where she had been taken suffering from appendicitis five days before. Like a flower that is plucked before the bud has fully opened she was taken at the age of 15 years and 6 months, away from the home which she was making bright by her presence and where she was making lighter the work of her mother who has not been in the best of health for several years. She was educated in the school at Wheeling and was confirmed in the Wheeling church by Rev. Wiegand two years ago, and has been a regular attendant of the Sunday school. The body was laid away in the Wheeling cemetery Wednesday. She leaves to mourn besides her grief-stricken parents, five uncles, six aunts and a host of friends whom she has made by her always cheerful disposition and good nature. The Herald sympathizes and mourns with the parents and friends her early death.
