CONDITIONS OF RESPONSIBILITY FOR OBJECTS LENT FOR EXHIBITION ONLY

1. The Society in accepting this loan will exercise such precautions for the safekeeping of the same as are now in force, or may hereafter be put in force, for the safekeeping and preservation of the property of The Society itself. The Society accepts no other responsibility or conditions, expressed or implied, unless by special agreement and specifically stated on the reverse side of this form.
2. Objects lent to the Society for temporary exhibition shall remain in the possession of the Society until the close of the exhibition of which said objects are to be a part unless otherwise stipulated and mutually agreed upon by the Lender and the Society.
3. The exhibition period of the objects listed on the reverse side of this form shall be from April 2016 to November 2017 inclusively. The Director or the Trustees of the Society, at their discretion, may remove the objects from exhibition at any time.
4. The Lender reserves ownership of all copyright, whether under common law or statute, in the objects lent. Subject to this reservation, the Lender authorizes the Society to photograph and reproduce photographs for any purpose other than sale for profit, including display or reproduction in copyrighted publications of newspapers and periodicals, at the discretion of the Society.
5. The Society will not attempt to clean, restore, reframe, or otherwise alter objects covered by this receipt, without the written consent of the owner.
6. In the event that because of sale, bequest, or other reason, the lent objects can not be returned to the original owner, the new owner shall establish his right to receive said objects by means of advance notification, in writing, and enclose a certified copy of his authority.

I hereby acknowledge that I have read and agree to the above terms and conditions.
